

Curricular Practical Training Application Approval Letter for Biology Concentrators

Student Section

Complete the section below and once signed by you and the Associate Dean of Biology, bring a copy of this application to the Office of International and Student Scholar Services (OISSS).

Name: _____ Expected Date of Graduation: _____

Concentration & Degree: _____

Internship Start Date: _____ End Date: _____ Location: _____

Internship Title: _____

Internship Supervisor & Email: _____

Description: In the space provided explain the nature of the training activity, specifically stating the expectations and/or duties to be performed. Describe the value of the training to the specific biological concentration and track (in the case of Biology ScB) or theme (in the case of Health & Human Biology AB) being pursued. How many hours weekly will be committed to the experience?

Student Signature/Date

Section for Associate Dean of Biology, Office of Undergraduate Education

_____ (student) is a concentrator in the Biological Sciences at Brown University.

As Associate Dean for Undergraduate Education in Biological Sciences and overseer of these programs, I confirm that the content of the proposed internship/training experience meets the standard for quality and relevance to the academic discipline, and may serve in fulfillment of the following concentration requirement:

Signature/Date

Katherine F. Smith, PhD
Associate Dean, Biological Sciences (Undergraduate Education)
Division of Biology and Medicine, Brown University